

One of Sask.'s best kept secrets

The Saskatchewan Association of International Languages (SAIL) is a provincial umbrella organization supporting international language schools and multilingual organizations throughout the province.

Not only to the province's language schools offer conversation and accredited language classes to people of all ages and walks of life, they also offer:

- international language training for travelers,
- Mini Language Lessons programming for Saskatchewan schools,
- business language training for companies and individuals involved in international trade and export,
- access to translators and interpreters, speaking a wide variety of languages, and much more...

Classes start September 2022. Don't wait to join.
